

FOUNDATIONS PROVIDING GRANTS
APPLICABLE FOR HEALTH CARE CAPITAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE IN RURAL AREAS

I. A. O. SMITH FOUNDATION, INC.

Grants are given in the areas of the Arts; Community development; Education; Health care; Hospitals (general); and Human services. Funds may be applied to annual campaigns, building/renovation, continuing support, employee matching gifts, and scholarship funds. Giving is primarily in the areas of company operations, including; AR, IL, IN, KS, KY, NC, OH, SC, TN, TX, WA, and WI.

For more information, contact: Edward J. O'Connor, Secy., P.O. Box 23971, Milwaukee, WI 53223-0971

II. THE AMBROSE MONELL FOUNDATION

Grants are given for the improvement of the physical, mental, and moral condition of humanity throughout the world. Giving is largely for hospitals and health services, scientific research, museums, performing arts and other cultural activities, higher and secondary education, support for social services, research in political science, mental health, and aid to the handicapped. Funds may be applied to annual campaigns, building/renovation, capital campaigns, continuing support, curriculum development, endowments, equipment, general/operating support, research, and scholarship funds.

For more information, contact: George Rowe, Jr., Pres., c/o Fulton, Rowe, Hart & Coon, 1 Rockefeller Plz., Ste. 301, New York, NY 10020-2002, Telephone: (212) 586-0700, or visit: <http://www.monellvetlesen.org/>

III. AMETEK FOUNDATION, INC.

Giving is primarily for education and health and human services, but can also be used for the arts, cancer, cancer research, education, elementary school/education, environment, natural resources, federated giving programs, higher education, history/archaeology, hospitals (general), human services, international human rights, Jewish agencies and temples, and medical research. Funds may be applied to annual campaigns, building/renovation, endowments, equipment, exchange programs, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, research, scholarship funds, and technical assistance.

For more information, contact: Kathryn E. Londra, 37 N. Valley Rd., Bldg. 4, P.O. Box 1764, Paoli, PA 19301-0801, Telephone: (610) 647-2121, or visit <http://www.ametek.com>.

IV. THE BOB & DOLORES HOPE CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Giving of funds is primarily for religious organizations, education, hospitals, and human services. Funds may be applied to the arts, elementary/secondary education, health care, health organizations, hospitals (general), human services, medical research, Roman Catholic agencies and churches, Roman Catholic federated giving programs, building/renovation, and general/operating support.

For more information, contact: Linda Hope, V.P., 10346 Moorpark St., North Hollywood, CA 91602-2407, (818) 841-2020.

V. CHARLES A. FRUEAUFF FOUNDATION, INC.

Grant funds may be used in support for health, including hospitals, mental health, and other health services; welfare purposes, including services to children, the indigent, and the handicapped; and private four-year higher education. Funds may be applied to annual campaigns, building/renovation, capital campaigns, continuing support, endowments, equipment, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, program development, and scholarship funds. Giving is limited to the U.S. with emphasis on east of the Rockies, the South, and the Northeast.

For more information, contact: Sue M. Frueauff, Secy., 3 Financial Ctr., 900 S. Shakleford, Ste. 300, Little Rock, AR 72211, Telephone: (501) 219-1410, Fax: (501) 219-1416 or visit: <http://www.frueaufffoundation.com>

VI. THE CHATLOS FOUNDATION, INC.

Grants are given for higher education and Christian associations, hospitals, health agencies, social services, international relief, and child welfare. Grant funds may be used for building/renovation, equipment, general/operating support, land acquisition, matching/challenge support, program development, publication, and technical assistance.

Contact: William J. Chatlos, Pres, P.O. Box 915048, Longwood, FL 32791-5048, Telephone: (407) 862-5077, or visit: <http://www.chatlos.org>

VII. THE DELL FOUNDATION

Dell Healthy Communities' Grants

The foundation supports a wide range of programs and organizations that benefit children newborn to eighteen years of age in the Central Texas and Middle Tennessee regions, Dell's principle U.S. locations. Dell supports communities through several various grants, among one of them is the Healthy Communities grants. Through two year partnerships with organizations, Dell helps empower its communities to address basic needs for children, such as food, shelter, safety, and healthcare.

For more information, visit <http://content.dell.com/us/en/corp/d/corp-comm/foundation.aspx>.

VIII. DONALD W. REYNOLDS FOUNDATION

Capital Grants Program

Projects for this program must be located in Arkansas, Nevada or Oklahoma. Potential applicants must have at least a five-year record of successful programmatic and administrative operations to be eligible. Construction grants under $2 million and renovation or capital equipment projects under $500,000 will not be considered. The maximum grant award is $15 million.

For more information, contact Donald W. Reynolds Foundation (<http://www.dwreynolds.org/>) for current guidelines or call (702) 804-6000 for further information. For questions about the Capital Grants Program, send an email to CapitalQuestions@dwrf.org.

IX. GLADYS BROOKS FOUNDATION

The foundation's primary purpose is to provide for the intellectual, moral, and physical welfare of the people of this country by establishing and supporting nonprofit libraries, educational institutions, hospitals, and clinics. Grant funds may be used for building/renovation, endowments, equipment, and scholarship funds. Giving is limited to CT, Washington, DC, DE, IN, MA, MD, ME, NC, NH, NJ, NY, OH, PA, RI, SC, VA, VT, and WV.

For more information, contact Thomas Q. Morris, M.D., 630 W. 168th St., New York, NY 10032, Telephone: (516) 746-6103 alternate contact: Jessica L. Rutledge, or visit: <http://www.gladysbrooksfoundation.org>

X. GLOBE FOUNDATION

Giving of grant monies is primarily for publicly supported community organizations and institutions, with emphasis on youth, cultural organizations, and hospitals. Funds may be applicable to annual campaigns, building/renovation, capital campaigns, continuing support, curriculum development, employee matching gifts, endowments, equipment, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, professorships, program development, and research.

For more information, contact: Lynn Getz-Schmidt, Exec. Dir., 6730 N. Scottsdale Rd., Ste. 250, Scottsdale, AZ 85253-4424, Telephone: (480) 991-0500, Fax: (602) 991-1912

XI. THE HUISKING FOUNDATION, INC.

Giving is focused primarily for arts and culture, education, the environment, animal protection, health and hospitals, human services, federated giving programs, and religious purposes. Funds may be applied to Building/renovation, Continuing support, Endowments, General/operating support, Program development, Research, Scholarship funds.

For more information, contact: Frank R. HuisKing, Treas., P.O. Box 368, Botsford, CT 06404-0368 or visit <http://www.huisKingfoundation.org>.

XII. JOHNSON CONTROLS FOUNDATION

Grants are given for higher education; health and hospitals; community funds; social services, including aid to the handicapped, care of children, and the aged; and civic, arts, and cultural organizations. Funds may be applied to annual campaigns, building/renovation, capital campaigns, continuing support, emergency funds, employee matching gifts, employee-related scholarships, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, and seed money.

For more information, contact: Valerie Adisek, Fdn. Coord., 5757 N. Green Bay Ave., P.O. Box 591, M.S. X-46, Milwaukee, WI 53201, Telephone: (414) 524-2296, or visit <http://www2.johnsoncontrols.com/CorpValues/foundation.htm#foundation>.

XIII. THE KATE B. REYNOLDS CHARITABLE TRUST

One of the largest foundations in the Southeast, the Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust supports 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations located in North Carolina. The Trust devotes three-fourths of its available funds to the Health Care Division, and has an emphasis on projects in rural areas. The Trust will consider capital assistance requests, including grants for construction or purchase of equipment.

For more information, contact The Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust, (336) 723-1456, webmaster@kbr.org or visit <http://www.kbr.org>.

XIV. KRAFT FOODS FUND (FORMERLY NABISCO FOUNDATION TRUST)

Giving is primarily for education, hospitals, human services, and cultural programs, including the performing arts. Funds may be applied to building/renovation, emergency funds, employee matching gifts, and scholarship funds.

For more information, contact: Henry A. Sandbach, Dir., Contribs, c/o Bankers Trust Co., P.O. Box 1297, Church St. Sta., New York, NY 10008 or visit <http://www.kraft.com>.

XV. THE KRESGE FOUNDATION

The Kresge Science Initiative: This program helps organizations purchase scientific equipment and raise endowment funds for its future maintenance and replacement

The Partnership to Raise Community Capital: This program offers assistance to help community foundations raise endowment funds

Bricks and Mortar Program: The Kresge Foundation makes grants to pay for construction, renovation, equipment or land purchase costs through this program.

For more information on the above programs, visit <http://www.kresge.org>

XVI. OTTO BREMER FOUNDATION

Maintaining the vitality of rural communities is a primary focus of the Otto Bremer Foundation. The foundation prefers funding projects that meet long-term needs and help communities become self-sufficient. It is particularly interested in receiving proposals for community-based projects in rural areas that have limited access to other sources of support. Applicants must be 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations serving residents of Minnesota, North Dakota or Wisconsin. The foundation will consider applications for health-related building or equipment grants, including requests for matching or challenge grants.

Contact: Contact Otto Bremer Foundation, (651) 227-8036, obf@bremer.com, or write to the above address for a copy of the annual report and current guidelines. You may also visit <http://www.ottobremer.org>.

XVII. THE R. C. BAKER FOUNDATION

The grants administered by the R.C. Barker Foundation give emphasis on higher education, including scholarships administered by selected colleges and universities; some support for hospitals and health agencies, cultural programs, and social service and youth agencies. Giving is limited to the Western U.S.

For more information, contact P.O. Box 6150, Orange, CA 92863-6150 Telephone: (714) 750-8987 Contact: Frank L. Scott, Chair.

XVIII. SAGE FOUNDATION

Emphasis is given to higher and secondary education, hospitals, aid to the handicapped, Roman Catholic religious and charitable organizations, youth and child welfare agencies, church support, and cultural programs. Funds may be applied to annual campaigns, building/renovation, capital campaigns, continuing support, endowments, equipment, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, program development, research, and scholarship funds.

For more information, contact: Melissa Sage Fadim, Pres, P.O. Box 1919, Brighton, MI 48116.

XIX. SAMUEL J. & CONNIE FRANKINO CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Grant funds are primarily for education and for health and human services; some funding is also given for the arts. Monies may be spent towards the arts; children/youth, services; elementary/secondary education; health care; hospitals (general); medical research, building/renovation, general/operating support, and research.

For more information, contact: Connie M. Frankino, Tr P.O. Box 250, Richland, NJ 08350, Telephone: (856) 794-8400.

XX. THE TEXTRON CHARITABLE TRUST

Giving is primarily for community funds, higher education, hospitals and health agencies, support for youth clubs, urban programs, minorities, and cultural programs. Funds may be applied to building/renovation, capital campaigns, employee matching gifts, equipment, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, program development, and technical assistance. Giving is primarily in the areas of company operations nationwide.

For more information, contact: Elizabeth W. Monahan, Contribs. Coord., P.O. Box 1861, Providence, RI 02901, Telephone: (401) 457-2430, or visit <http://www.textron.com/profile/community.html>.

XXI. UNION PACIFIC FOUNDATION

Grants are primarily given to non-tax-supported institutions of higher education, health (including hospitals and hospices), social services, fine and performing arts groups and other cultural programs, and environmental programs. Funds may be applied to building/renovation, capital campaigns, continuing support, curriculum development, equipment, general/operating support, matching/challenge support, professorships, program development, and scholarship funds. Giving is primarily in areas of company operations, with emphasis on the Midwestern and western U.S.: AR, AZ, CA, CO, IA, ID, IL, KS, LA, MN, MO, MT, NE, NM, NV, OK, OR, TX, UT, WA, WI, and WY.

For more information, contact: Ms. Darlynn Herweg, Dir., 1416 Dodge St., Rm. 802, Omaha, NE 68179, Telephone: (402) 271-5600, Fax: (402) 271-5477, E-mail: upf@up.com, or visit: <http://www.up.com/found>